

The Lord Has Brought Zion Again

Lyrics: Emily Rachel Middleton

Music: Christine Knowles Monson

Scriptures: Doctrine & Covenants 84:98-102.

When the earth has travailed and brought forth her strength,
Shall her bowels with glory be clothed,
And heaven will smile from the east to the west
For the truth is established once more.

When the serpent is bound and time is no more,
Shall the Lord God of Israel be known,
For he is the way, and the truth and the life,
And He stands in the midst of His own.

(Chorus: verses 1 and 2)

*Sing glory and honor and power and might,
For the Lord has brought Zion again.
From heaven and earth He has gathered in one,
Forever and ever amen.*

When the greatest and least of all who remain,
Are united and see eye to eye,
To their God they'll ascribe peace, mercy and grace,
While they lift up their voices and cry:

When the children of men have proven their faith,
And remembered their covenant made,
To the Lord they will turn, and sing this new song,
For they know their election of grace.

(Chorus verses 3 and 4)

*All glory and honor and power and might,
Be to Him the Redeemer of men,
For He is the God of all justice and truth,
And He reigneth forever, Amen.*

--

Copyright © 2018. Lyrics may be copied, distributed and broadcast for non-commercial use. Music may not be distributed without permission.